

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For State Treasurer..... JAMES W. TATK.
For State Auditor..... A. B. CLARKE.
For State Senator..... W. B. HANFORD.
For State Representative..... N. MENEFEE.

On all men of business the average newspaper man is the worst. He smells himself of no more of the methods which business men in general use to protect themselves, but in their anxiety for money they jump at any offer, and credit for collection and advertisements right and left, without regard to the responsibility or honesty of the parties. A case in point illustrates their way of doing business: Some time ago an agent for the French Liver Pad Co., of Toledo, O., visited the various towns of Kentucky, and after contracting with druggists to handle their invention, sought the newspaper offices, and in the name of one A. J. Bebout, a so-called advertising agent of the same city, contracted for about half a column of regular and several lines of local advertisements. The very fact that they were doing business in one name and advertising in another, was conclusive proof to us that there was something wrong, but the young man explained that Bebout was a partner and they did it to prevent trouble in keeping books. We took the advertisement, but becoming more suspicious, and receiving a letter of inquiry from Brother Hooper, of the Lebanon Standard and Times, as to the solvency of Bebout, we made investigation in Toledo, and found that if he was worthy of credit he had not yet shown it. Of course we discontinued the "ad," and wrote to Bebout who offered to pay for the insertion, but has taken particular pains not to do so. We write this to see how many of the one hundred papers in Kentucky which are running the "ad," know what they are doing, or whether they care how much they are duped by Yankee sharpers. We would like for all to speak, even if they have to do so at once.

WILLIAM OWLEY HANFORD, the Democratic nominee to represent Lincoln county in the next Legislature, was born in this county 33 years ago. Until the re-organization of the Democratic party in 1868, he was an old-line Whig, and as such was elected to the Legislature for the term of '90 to '92. During the war he was an intense Union man, and on that account had much influence with the Federal soldiers, whom he kept from mistreating and robbing those of his neighbors who sided with the "Lost Cause." In 1868, when the party lines were drawn so that he had to choose between the Democrats and the Republicans, he chose the former, and has ever since labored and voted with that party. A lawyer by profession, a thoroughly honest and conscientious man in all his dealings, he will, with his legislative experience, make the county a most excellent Representative, and it should be the pride of every Democrat to swell his majority as great as possible. His position on the questions that must come before the next General Assembly is sound and conservative, and his choice for the Senate is the choice of the people—Hon. James H. Beck.

More than a year ago, Capt. A. J. May, a Lexington shot, shot James Ferguson in this city, and although the shooting was unprovoked, the general impression, formed by the result of trial, was that he could go unpunished. May was thoroughly of this impression himself, but for a rarity in these days of bribery and sentimentalism, a jury was found who not only knew their duty but dared to do it, and May was given four years in the State penitentiary. He will hardly suffer it, though, as there are so many ways to circumvent the laws and justice. A new trial has been applied for, failing to obtain which his counsel will take the case to the Court of Appeals, when, if the decision is not favorable, Gov. Blackburn, the hope and the comfort of all evil-doers, will be appealed to. It is so seldom that a jury of true men can be found that it is hoped that the verdict of this one may be allowed to stand, and make an exception to the rule that no wealthy man, or one with influential connections, can be made to suffer for his crimes in this State.

AS THERE was no opposition to the candidacy of Mr. A. B. Clarke, of Casey, for the Senate, he is, of course, the nominee on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Clarke was born in Grant county, and is about thirty-seven years of age. Acquiring by his own industry a good common school education, he studied law and afterwards moved to Pulaski, where he practiced for a short time, going thence to the green fields of Casey. There he united the noble employment of teaching the young with how to shoot with his profession and law to a foothold, and at present he enjoys a good practice. He is a sound Democrat and a man of honor, and it behooves the party to see that he is elected. Let no one think that Col. Robert Blair has no show in the race. He has a large following, which can only be overcome by persistent work on the part of the Democracy. But Mr. Clark can and must be elected.

SOME uncharitable newspapers, notably the Sunday Argus, are slurring at Mr. Barnes because his picture will appear in the June number of Stress. They say that it is an effort of his to gain more notoriety, when the fact is that Mr. Barnes knows nothing of the matter. Mr. J. K. Mulkey, of the Stress, conceived the idea of publishing the picture and wrote to us to obtain one for him. We did so without consulting Mr. Barnes, believing that it could not do him any harm, and being satisfied that it would gratify those who had never seen the good evangelist. Mr. Barnes has passed that period when he could have been flattered by such things. He is a wholly and solely devoted to the Lord, and does not seek, except in the advancement of His cause, to be paraded before the public.

JESSE BUTLER, of Louisville, Judge Heflavin, of Shelbyville, and numerous others are mentioned as candidates for the vacant Judgeship of the Court of Appeals. If this session had a chance she would put her in for a fall.

THE people in Virginia set down on Mahone is the recent local elections, and that individual is now in condition to wish that a million were about his neck and that he was cast into the sea.

Kentucky was 69 years old Tuesday.

How near the mighty fallen? Three weeks ago, while occupying the position of U. S. Senator from the great State of New York, Conkling, who had been used to having things his own way, and felt as if he were holding up the whole world by his tail, fell into a passion because the President refused to knuckle to him, and not only resigned his seat himself but forced his people, Platt, to do likewise. No thought other than that he would be immediately re-elected by the Legislature of New York, then in session, seemed to enter his head, and he humbled up his traps and with his little man, Platt, at his heels, struck out for Albany. His first effort was to get the members into a caucus, but they refused to be dictated to and Conkling suffered his first defeat. Matters then assuming somewhat of a torrid shape, an adjournment of the Legislature till Tuesday was effected. Shorn of his greatness and humiliated by defeat, Conkling returned to New York City, where he spent the interim with his friends devising ways and means, returning to Albany on Monday. Tuesday at 12 the balloting commenced, the two branches of the body voting separately, when Conk got 20 votes in the House and 9 in the Senate—35 in all. Considering that it takes 51 to elect, this was very humiliating. The Crested Jayhawk, in answer to the Democratic interference or a mighty change comes over the spirit of the dreams of the "Half-Breeds," (as those Republicans are called who oppose Conk), caused by the gingle of money in their ears, it is pretty safe to foretell that the ex-Senator will not be his own successor. But what of Platt? He fares even worse than his boss, receiving but 29 votes in all. Wednesday, a joint ballot was taken, with the same result. The friends of the administration are jubilant and confident that Conkling will be left; but his followers present a cheerful front, and say that he will yet come out victor, and that he is only waiting in the make the surprise more astonishing. The general opinion seems to be against him, however, and the impression prevails that he will be the one to experience the surprise—his fall. He will wake up one of these hot summer mornings to find himself dealer politically than he would have been had G. W. Sprague's shotgun gone off when he chased him from Narragansett Pier.

THE most contemptible man in the United States today is Vice-President Arthur, the our who Conkling took by the tail and swung into the National Convention at Chicago. He over all he has done to Conkling, but some respect for decency ought to prevent him from descending to the low level of a lummer, especially when the dirty work he engaged in is against the President, with whom he was elected. But, what better could be expected of a man whom Hayes and Sherman kicked out of office because of the corrupt manner in which he conducted that office?

SENATOR MORRIS, of Alabama, in a letter to Capt. Morgan, of Lexington, expresses himself as follows in regard to Senator Beck: "But aside from such considerations, which I never ignore, Beck is, in fact, the most useful man on our side of the Senate." In our present condition he seems to me to be indispensable. It would be a calamity to the Democratic party, and above all to the South, to lose him from the Senate."

HARPER'S Weekly, which has always opposed the imperialism of ex-Senator Conkling, and which especially opposed his effort to thrust Grant on the country for a third term, contains a picture of the Crested Jayhawk in its last issue, in which it depicts him as a runaway sheep with his tail between his legs, and tail bearing the name of Platt. It is pretty severe on the seceders.

THE reason assigned by scores of Democrats for their failure to vote in the primary election is that they did not wish to take any part in a transaction which might bind them in honor to vote for Robert. But such men did not consider that if 141 more Democrats had followed their example Robert would now be the nominee.

BELOWING the modest example of the Danville Tribune, Ditto publishes a picture of himself and resolutions accompanying of a complimentary nature. (Post.) The funny part is that the picture Ditto publishes is the old cut used to show a man looks "before taking" a kingly-cure medicine.

THE sage of the Breckinridge News struck a center shot when he fired off the following: "Whenever you scratch the back of an 'independent Democratic' candidate you tickle a disguised Republican."

THE President of the Press Association of Kentucky, Col. J. Stoddard Johnston, has decided to postpone the annual meeting until the fall. For our part, we hope it will be indefinitely postponed.

HENRY M. STANTON, of the Evening, will celebrate his silver wedding to-morrow, when he will be able to show his friends a child for each year of his wedded life.

You can go to St. Louis and return for the next few days for $7, and on July 7th an excursion will leave Louisville for San Francisco at $100 for the round-trip, including sleepers.

During the last fifteen years of slavery the South raised 16,675,091 bales of cotton. During the first fifteen years under freedom, that is, from 1863 up to 1878, the number of bales produced was 56,138,235.

Silver dollars are becoming a drug in circulation. For several months they have been returned to the Treasury in exchange for over two millions of new coins.

Conk took time to send the following to Malone at Richmond: "Your efforts for the true advancement of the South, and to make elections real and fair has my whole heart and dearest cooperation of the Republicans everywhere."

Miss Sarah Bernhardt arrived at Harro on Monday, May 16, from the United States. A French newspaper states that the whole city was on foot, and more than 30,000 people lined the pier and the streets leading to her house.

The Louisville, New Albany & St. Louis Railroad advises for bids, to close June 10th, for the graduation, masonry, tunneling and trestle works on sections 40 to 93, inclusive, through Crawford, Du Bois & Hickman counties, Indiana.

A Chattanooga biller exploded and killed a man a half mile distant with a nine-pound piece of iron, and hurled another piece weighing two hundred pounds through two cars loaded with grain and knocking down the corner of a house.

The total receipts of the Government from Internal Revenue for the fiscal year up to today are $121,559,868.25. The Commissioner thinks there is no doubt but that the receipts will reach by the close of the fiscal year the sum of $133,000,000.

The Special W. H. H. of the Star-route swindlers, knowing that there is no chance of a failure of his indictment and conviction, except in death, has taken his bed and refuses to rise, although there is no physical disorder discoverable in him.

The Headquarters of Virginia held a convention at Richmond yesterday to nominate candidates for Governor, Lt. Governor and Attorney General. There were five candidates for Governor, of Pittsylvania.

In Cincinnati a reception was given to Judge and Mrs. Stanley Matthews by Washington McLean, of the Enquirer, at his elegant mansion. Among the gentlemen present were Mr. Henry Watterson, Senator Beck, ex-Governor Stevenson and Mr. John Stevenson.

Dr. Rodman, Superintendent of the Western Lunatic Asylum, at Hopkinsville, returned to the State Treasury $22,000, the difference between the amount allowed by the State for the keeping of the inmate and the actual amount it had cost him to run the Asylum.

John Grisco, of Chicago, lawyer, after seventy-two hours of fasting, shows a loss of eleven pounds. He appears to be in a healthy normal condition, plays games, visits the theaters, and when he feels the need of stimulation takes a leisurely walk. He says he can go forty-five days.

The London Times says: "The open rupture between President Garfield's administration and Mr. Conkling, lately Senator for the State of New York, and the most powerful politician in the Republican party, outside the Cabinet, but no ill omen for the tranquility of the United States."

Volney Hall was shot and killed by his brother-in-law, A. Odor, at Cynthiana, Ky., Tuesday, who crept up behind him and fired without giving him the least warning. The only reason assigned for the act by Odor is that his mother was kept crazy all the time for fear Hall would kill him.

The Richmond Register announced that Dr. L. H. Stanton, Chancellor of Central University, has secured $41,000 in subscriptions to the endowment fund of the University. This amount has been subscribed entirely by persons outside of Madison county, and $35,000 of the whole has been given by twenty-two individuals.

CANBY COUNTY.

Middleburg.

Corn was planted late, and has come up very badly. Some farmers have planted their entire crops over again.

Mr. Thomas Elliott, who recently purchased the farm of Mr. W. T. Gullter, had the misfortune to get his horse burned down on the 27th inst.

Capt. J. H. Hindman and Mr. C. M. Saller, two attorneys of Columbia, were here on business a few days ago. Her A. B. C. business, associate editor of the Western Democrat, was here last week in the interest of his paper. Mrs. Jasper's school closed on Friday last.

On last Monday morning Mr. James C. Smith, of Lincoln, and Harlan Goode, of Casey, met in Middleburg, and Smith drew a pistol on Goode, collared him and led him off a few steps, and intended to shoot him through the head, but the ball glanced off simply passing under the skin. Smith thought he had killed him, and I understand, has left the country. Cause of difficulty, slander.

The exhibition and commencement exercises of Middleburg Seminary will occur on the 15th inst. We are promised a nice and pleasant entertainment. An admission fee will be charged, in order to raise funds toward the completion of the house. Let every one come and give all the encouragement to the enterprise they possibly can.

Prof. Waters has labored very earnestly in his school, but we are sorry to say has not been as liberally patronized as he should have been. We trust he will be re-employed and better patronized in future.

ROCK CASTLE.

Danville.

The Danville Fair will commence July 20th and continue four days.

A very light vote was polled at the primary election Saturday—57 votes and all for Clarke.

Sorrow left the soul of the farmer on Wednesday morn, as he saw the rain coming beautifully down.

Wool 25c to 25c. The growing wheat 80c to 85c. Chas. H. Lucas has bought about 500 acres at that price.

The Democrats of Boyle will meet in Mass Convention at the Court House in Danville, Monday, June 20th, to select a candidate for the Legislature.

The young men are making preparations for a Grand Ball Commencement week—Wednesday night, June 15th. Currier's Band will be in attendance.

The proving of things not seen, as the Revised Testament has it, John Lay, for carrying concealed weapons, was held to answer on $35 bail, on Monday. The fine, upon conviction, could not possibly be less.

George A. Cooper, colored, (see Bailey) known about Hustonville, is in jail at Danville, charged with stealing a black velvet dress from a delegate in the Colored Christian Convention in this place last week.

Baccalaureate Sermon, to the Bell Seminary graduating class, by R. A. Crenshaw, of Versailles, at the Christian Church on Sunday evening next, at 8 o'clock. To the Centre College Seminary, by Dr. Martin, at 2nd Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning, 12th inst.

Rev. James J. Lucas, for more than ten years a missionary to India, is now visiting his family in this city, his former home. He preached at the 1st Presbyterian Church on last Sunday night and gave counsel to his laborers in the heathen land. He will preach at the 2nd Church next Sunday morning and evening.

"Old lightning" has just made up his mind he has got to strike something around here and he has been hanging away, above and below and all around, for two or three days. A blue streak of him ran up right Main street last Tuesday evening—and you know what? The boys are studiously avoiding attractive girls with hair pins.

There was an annual meeting of the Boyle County Bible Society at 1st Presbyterian Church, this city, on last Sunday morning. For the ensuing year, Hon. M. J. Durham was chosen President; the various pastors of churches in Danville, Vice-Presidents; Joe S. Linney, Secretary, and T. E. Wiseman, Treasurer. Amount of collection, $53.50.

The Bell Seminary Commencement Exercises will be conducted on Wednesday night, June 18th, at 8 o'clock at the 1st Presbyterian Church, this city. The sweet girl graduates are Misses Nellie Ferguson, Juliet Harlan, Nannie Stedhill and Nannie Elliott, of Danville; Miss Lillie Pettus, of Somerset; Miss Nannie Troutman, Lexington, and Miss Mary Lackland, of St. Louis.

The graves of the Confederate soldiers in our cemetery were decorated on Friday evening last by the Ladies' Memorial Association. The large crowd that had assembled around the graves was addressed by Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge. The address was chaste, eloquent and appropriate.

On Monday afternoon the graves of the Federal dead were decorated and the graves of their countrymen felled by them. Gen. S. S. Fry delivered a manuscript speech, Col. Bradley failing to appear. After the address the company sang, "My Country, 'tis of thee, &c."

Frank D. Cropper, of St. Louis is in Danville. Robert Evans, Sam and Frank Cheek, and Samuel G. Boyle have returned to Danville from Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore, where they have been pursuing their studies for the past year.

Miss Sue Belle Fible has returned from school in Virginia and is now in Danville. Mr. George B. Flece, formerly of Danville, now of Memphis, Tenn., is visiting his brother, J. W. Flece in this city. The presence of Mr. Flece here reminds his friends of an incident that occurred here in his boyhood days. There is, however, some diversity of opinion as to whether the "subject of this sketch" should be George or his brother John.

Boys all agree. It is customary at all circus exhibitions in our town for the pupils of the Deaf and Dumb Institute to be admitted free. This circus day as the last Mass procession was filing into the tent George (or perhaps John) then quite a small boy, conceived a brilliant idea—it has been well-established that the mind of the small boy is capable of such conception in an emergency. He seized the arm of a companion and they fell into line. Says the showman: "Hello! are you a dummy, too?" "Yes, sir." That showman was one of those men who believe that merit should always be rewarded. He doubted that any mutts who had made some progress as to be able to both hear and talk, was certainly a genius—and might, perchance be over-looked and passed him by free.

PULASKI COUNTY.

Homecroft.

The new-gathered is afflicted with that awful disease known as laziness, and hence his items are few.

An attempt was made last night to wreck the night express at Gower's Switch, just below here. A tie was fastened between the rails in such a position that the train running at a high rate of speed would be wrecked. A freight, however, was ordered, and as it was running very slow, no damage was done except to the engine.

The graves at Logan's Cross-roads were decorated yesterday. The decoration was with flags, two being placed on each grave. Music was furnished by the ladies of this place on an organ furnished through the courtesy of Mr. P. H. Talmadge, of the house of Baldwin & Co. The orations were delivered by John J. Paul, T. Z. Morrow, John S. May, L. D. Parker and W. A. Morrow, of Somerset.

James Mulaney, who shot Bill Durham, was tried last week. To the surprise of all who heard the testimony, the bond was fixed at $1,000. The case, as detailed by the witnesses except two, was one of justifiable homicide. These two were Samuel Durham and James Wilson, a regular old rascal. The latter afforded much amusement. She was very smart at first answering with wonderful promptness. The lawyers let her alone, and she was soon involved in a perfect labyrinth of contradictions.

MADE COUNTY.

Monticello.

Only, melons and potato crops are being damaged by the protracted dry weather. Farmers are getting the growing corn crop in good condition.

Miss McKeehn & Sons are receiving orders at their mill to furnish flour to different points along the Cincinnati Southern Railroad in Tennessee.

A spirited contest is being had for school trustees in the Tuffey Valley district. Misses Sophronia Utatis and Lucy Jones, two very popular young ladies, are rival aspirants for the position of teacher there.

Capt. L. J. Stephenson informs me that he has collected some 250 fine walnut logs on Sinking, and will begin cutting them into lumber as soon as his mill arrives. He and Mr. R. Burnett have secured a large amount of walnut lumber that will be prepared for market during the summer and fall.

Married, on the 20th inst., at the church in Monticello, Ky., by Elder J. J. Shover, Mr. R. F. Oatts, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Miss Mary McCannagh, of this place. In honor of the above marriage an immense company of invited guests were royally entertained at the residence of Capt. J. H. Oatts on the day after the wedding.

Machinery has arrived and derricks have been erected preparatory to sinking a well for oil near the celebrated oil springs on Harman's Creek. A Pennsylvania company has leased a large territory in that region, and seems confident that they will find oil in paying quantities there. Another company of Pennsylvania is operating at the old well on Otter Creek. A well was bored there in 1866 that yielded immense quantities of a very superior quality of lubricating oil.

Among the distinguished elders to our town the past week we notice: Mr. Wm. Burnett, of Cincinnati, O.; Joseph Rosenfeld, of Midway, Ky.; Mr. H. H. W. Tuck, of Louisville, Ky.; John T. Wilhite, of Cincinnati, O.; Mrs. Bettie B. Jones, of Kismet, Tenn.; and Dr. J. B. S. Friebe, receiving medical treatment. Mr. A. S. Jones, of Lincoln county is here at present. Mrs. Bettie Coffey and Mrs. Willie Gragg are both confined in their rooms by ill-health. Miss Allie Shearer is getting well. Miss Cora Cooper is sick.

Henry S. Tuttle, Jr., the polite assistant pharmacist in the postoffice drug store, has been excelling in mind for the past ten days whether or not to become a candidate for the Legislature. Since days he declares very emphatically that he is running, and next day he notifies his friends that he is "off the track." The trouble with him seems to be in the arrangement of a platform that will secure the votes of both parties. He is a stalwart "Rad" in politics, but is anxious to receive the support of the Democracy, and as there is some little discrepancy in the tenets of the two parties, he has heretofore been bothered to contrive a set of principles that will harmonize the conflicting elements. And besides, he says the boys insist on his "settling 'em up" a little too often as early in the season.

Mt. Vernon Department.

SAM. M. BURDETTE, Editor.

The following marriage licenses have been issued since last report: Patrick McFerran to Martha Lamb; Jas. M. Singleton to Margaret Mullins.

Judge John M. Fitch, Capt. R. L. Myers and Mr. J. C. P. Myers, are the supervisors of the tax books for this year. They are engaged in their duties this week.

The many friends in this county of Capt. B. F. Holman, of Manchester, will be glad to learn that his attendance at Mr. Barnes' meeting now in progress at that place has resulted in his confining the Sactor.

The last days of May were as hot as any we usually see in August. The nights, however, have so far been very pleasant, affording delightful opportunity for refreshing sleep.

Through the exertions of the ladies, a new carpet has been placed on the floor of the Church. Enough money has been subscribed to give the exterior of the building a dressing of paint, of which it has long stood in need.

Mr. R. M. Mouser, wife and child have rooms at Mr. James Holman's, and will spend the summer with us. Mr. Mouser is agent for Hike's Nurseries, Dayton, O., of whose fruits he has already sold considerable in this county.

On the 24th inst., Mrs. Catherine West, widow of the late Peter H. West, aged 75 years. She was born in Virginia and lived there until her removal to this county forty years ago. She was a member of the Methodist Church and a most excellent lady.

A fine rain fell in this county Wednesday afternoon and night. It did not come any too soon, as crops were withering in it. The rain appears to have been general in this section. The farmers are also always predicting a famine, will cease their croaking now for a while.

Every Democrat in the county should attend and vote at the Senatorial primary election of Saturday week, the 11th inst. Let there be a general rally all along the line. The contest is a friendly one, and Rockcastle's voice in the naming of our next Senator should ring out bold and clear.

ABOUT PEOPLE. Mr. C. S. Nield is back from Kansas. He and his wife are at Pine Hill, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Crooke. Messrs. William and Moses Rollins, of Kocoma, Ind., are visiting relatives in this county. Prof. A. G. Lorell is in bed, suffering from an attack of the fever.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Adams and family, of New York, are visiting the lady's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Miller.

Mr. Henry W. Watson, familiarly known as "Jack" Watson, a sprightly young man from Mitchellburg, Ky., was here last week on business. Mr. L. S. Jones and family, of Louisville, are visiting at Mr. J. J. Williams'.

Mr. W. S. Young, of House's Store, Laurel county, is announced as a candidate to represent this Legislative district in the Lower House of the next General Assembly. Persons here who know Mr. Young say he is a good man, an unflinching Democrat, and consequently, excellent material. He has not become a candidate for the mere sake of being a candidate, but goes into the fight with a determination to win. The Democrats of this county will stand by him till the sun goes down.

Last Thursday night, Charles Crawford, a young negro who had been working on the railroad in Laurel county, but was returning to Madison, entered the house of Stephen L. Manning, near Brodhead, on the absence of the proprietor, and feloniously took and carried away sundry articles, to-wit: Two coats, one pair pants, a pair of boots, two silk handkerchiefs, and two pocket-books, one of which contained a twenty five cent piece, the current coin of the realm. After leaving the house, Crawford proceeded to throw off the bags which then enveloped his guile, and ran, and to attire himself in the clothing which he had recently appropriated. The transformation being complete, he went on his way rejoicing. At Gum Sulphur, however, he was overhauled and captured by some parties who had gone in pursuit after the discovery of the theft. He was speedily shorn of his greatness, and on Saturday was carried before Esquire Fitch and Tharp to answer the charge of grand larceny. He waived an examination and was held in a bond of $100 to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court. In default of executing a bond, he was sent to jail. Henry's home is at Berea, Ky. It is quite likely that he will be called on to take up a temporary residence in Frankfort before an opportunity is afforded him to revisit the haunts of his childhood.

CHARGE OF MR. VERNON DEPARTMENT.

BROADHEAD.—Messrs. Albright Bros. are preparing to erect a stove bucker. Eld. W. T. Tree will preach in the Baptist Church at this place next Sunday at 11 o'clock. A. M. A good rain fell Wednesday. There is not a leafy in this little village. Every man has something to keep him engaged, and business is booming. About 20 cars of lumber per month are shipped from this station. It realizes $75 per car and is, therefore, a considerable source of revenue. Miss Ellen Fitch, Brodhead's little niece, is spending a few days with her brother, R. H. Fitch, at Gum Sulphur. S. C. Perkins, who has been visiting his mother in Pulaski county, has returned. Mrs. S. J. Watts is very sick. J. G. Fitch is in Laurel county this week. R. T. Hemphill is convalescing. Mr. S. P. Owens, an energetic agent is here making sales and deliveries of the Singer Sewing Machines. C. B. Albright has a dry goods and grocery store at John Melvin's saw-mill, three miles from town.
